STRIKE-BREAKERS FLED TO SOUTHERN DEPOT

And Left Asheville of First Train—Mob Tried to Storm
Hotel Where Strike-Breakers Were Quartered.

Asheville, N. C., April 27.—Promptly at the Asheville station, a mob of about 200 men surrounded the hotel where the strike-breakers were lodged, and tried to storm the place. The mob was repulsed, and the strike-breakers fled to the Southern depot.

Mayor Pleaded With Mob.

Heretofore work on the part of the police department prevented the strikebreakers from leaving the hotel. The mob was repulsed, and the strikebreakers fled to the Southern depot.
The mayor pleaded with the mob, but they refused to leave. The strikebreakers were then taken to the Southern depot.

Strikers Orderly.

The strikers, eighty-seven in number, were orderly throughout the mob. They were taken to the Southern depot.

ATLANTA NEW YORK PARIS

Ask Mr. Foster

Beginning this morning, and continuing for one month, Atlantans will have a month-long opportunity to secure authoritative information about summer traveling.

This service is purely complimentary, absolutely free to our friends.

It is a unique proposition, one deserving of the interest of all who will travel this summer. It is helpful. These people know at first hand about the famous and the secluded resorts of the world; they have stacks on stacks of descriptive literature about these resorts; they will plan trips for you, tell you what the expenses will be, do just about everything for you—and at no cost whatsoever.

Come, ask questions—they are on the first floor, next the art goods department.

Wash Goods Priced

After the opera, busy sewing days. First aid here in these wash goods priced for quick selling Monday. Wanted materials necessary for summer comfort priced as they are because they are small surpluses.

PLEADS FOR BETTER SOCIAL CONDITIONS

Rev. F. M. Crouch Asks People of Atlanta to Forget Their Religious Differences.

That the people of Atlanta should forget their religious differences, and, regardless of denominations, join in the work of bettering social conditions here, was the contention of Rev. F. M. Crouch, field secretary of the joint commission on social service of the Protestant Episcopal church of New York, from the pulpit of St. Philip's cathedral yesterday morning.

"The present generation needs a new version of the parable of the Good Samaritan," declared Dr. Crouch. "It is not the single individual to do good in his own way that we need so much as a band of strong men to go along the road to Jericho and wipe out the thieves and robbers that no more travelers may be beaten."

"This is an age of prevention, not of cure."

"In order to achieve this cleaning-up, we must unite. There should be no harsh feeling between the followers of the different religions. We must remember everyone has a different means for reaching salvation, anyway—and all of us, Baptist and Presbyterian, Episcopalian and Methodist, should get together in one great endeavor to bring a little, at least, of the Magic City to earth."

BEAVER BUYS STOCK IN RIVERSIDE ACADEMY

Of great interest in preparatory school circles and among prospective students is the announcement made Saturday that Professor Sandy Beaver, of Stone Mountain, has bought a large block of stock in Riverside Military and Naval academy, and will assume active management of Riverside on the first day of June. Professor Beaver has been elected president, succeeding Dr. H. Pearce.

This announcement is one of the most interesting which has been made in preparatory school circles in recent years, for Professor Beaver is one of the best-known and most popular preparatory school principals in the south. Professor Beaver was born at Augusta, Ga., was educated in that city, and afterwards graduated at the University of Georgia with a degree in 1902.

While a student at the university, Professor Beaver was a leader in athletics, and was elected captain of the famous baseball team of 1901, when only 17 years of age, and thus became the youngest baseball captain the university has ever had.

After leaving the university, Beaver played for three years on the varsity football team, and was considered one of the leading players of the season, making all-southern tackle in senior year.

Riverside Naval academy, located on the banks of the Chattahoochee river and Lake Warner, conducts the only preparatory naval school in this section, and on account of its splendid facilities for aquatic sports is well known as "the swimmer's school."

Professor Beaver is now in charge of the aquatic work in the summer school, and works in conjunction with Riverside's well-known literary faculty, of which Dr. F. L. McCoy is principal.

COMMERCIAL FERTILIZER HAS BIG GEORGIA SALE

Reports from the headquarters of the various fertilizer factories and oil mills, which operate mining plants in Georgia, located in Atlanta, indicate that the tonnage of commercial fertilizer which has been sold in this state during the week just closing has been one of the heaviest of the season.

The wet weather throughout the spring has put the farmers behind in their planting, and they realize they must depend, largely, upon a heavy application of commercial fertilizer to give their crop up and fruited in time and escape frost. A large number of fertilizer sales will be by the department of agriculture indicate that the demand expected to be met by the end of the next few weeks. The area under cultivation is not expected to be much greater this year than last, but the productivity, due to increased fertilization, is expected to be larger.

While the planters are taking hold of their plan of second and even third application of fertilizer in order to supply the necessary plant food for the growing crop. This form of fertilization has proven most rational and demonstrates have shown that at a cost of 25 per acre, for second application fertilizer, the average crop has produced 35 per acre more than that fertilized only when the crop was planted.

Solitaire Diamond Engagement Rings

Every girl wants to own and wear a solitaire diamond engagement ring. She may tell you, for economical reasons, that she doesn't want you to give her such a ring, but it is needless to say such a gift would delight her, and she would prize it all the more.

A woman cannot have too many diamonds. They make the best kind of an investment, for they steadily increase in value.

We offer you correctly graded diamonds, of the highest quality and grades guaranteed, and you can pay for cash or on easy monthly payments.

Selections sent anywhere on approval, without expense or obligation.

Write or call for our booklet, "Facts About Diamonds," and ask also for our 160-page general catalogue.

CRUISE RETURN FOR PLEASANT FOR MARY LON

President Returns From Outing Feeling Stronger—Busy Week Ahead.

Washington, April 27.—Reated after a day and a night of quiet aboard the yacht St. Mary's, President Wilson returned to the White House tonight shortly after 8 o'clock.

Tomorrow will mark the beginning of another busy week for him. With the Japanese situation and the tariff debate to watch in addition to the usual heavy white house routine, the president will have his hands full preparing to get away Thursday for his New Jersey speaking trip.

The cruise down the Potomac was pleasant and uneventful, although to-morrow's sailing for the coast was postponed yesterday morning.

The return trip began at 10 o'clock this afternoon, the change in the weather upsetting plans for another night on the water.

The president, who was accompanied only by Dr. Cary Grayson, white house naval aide and a secretary, Miss Eleanor, and a secret service man, gave no attention to business. He carried no papers, and his only reading was a copy of the Washington Post.

The departure of the Sylvia and her return were marked by the absence of the customary presidential salute. The commander of the navy had been requested to permit no demonstration of any kind.

CLAN O'HARA TO BURY DEAD THIS MORNING

Clan O'Hara, 400 strong, are flocking to Atlanta from all directions for their annual convention, which is being held at the city's largest hotel, the Hotel O'Hara, this morning.

The band of horse traders, and all O'Hara clansmen are horse traders by profession, and are long on loyalty and on sentiment. They vow that Atlanta is the only city in the United States where they can buy their dead, and they go even farther, for they require that O'Hara & Sons' company, now in charge of the funeral home, prepare for burial all departed clansmen.

Many of the clansmen have been in business there have directed the services.

All members of this clan who have died since the last annual burial have been stored in vaults for the interim.

Brigadier General, the ritual will be a Catholic ceremony, and there will be one church service and mass over all the dead in the church of the Immaculate Conception.

The bodies will all be laid to rest at West View cemetery, and at O'Hara's there will be a separate ceremony over each body. The funeral will be held at: Bridget Costello, Blackhawk, Ga.; Bridget Shero, Sparks, Ga.; Mary Anne, New York, N. Y.; Mabel Carroll, Alamo, Ga.; Mrs. Anna Sherlock, Baker, Ga.; Miss Bridget Mack, Thomasville, Ga.; and Mrs. Bridget O'Hara, Cobb, Ga.

MAKERS OF CORDUOYS WANT PRESENT TARIFF

Washington, April 27.—(Special.)—Manufacturers of cotton corduroys, who are active in the textile industry, have been heard from. Underwood that the present rates of duty on these articles be continued.

The process of manufacture is a difficult one, requiring a great deal of machinery, and the cost of the raw material is the finished product.

The labor cost here is from two to three times that abroad, although the cost of the raw material is the same.

FLEW ACROSS ATLANTIC IN HYDRO-AEROPLANE

Carrying a Passenger Aviator Fowler Accomplished feat. Met Strong Wind Currents.

Colon, April 27.—Robert G. Fowler, the American aviator, made a flight across the Atlantic in a hydro-aeroplane today with a passenger.

Fowler left Panama beach at 9:41 a. m. He died the South from view, and the entrance to the canal for more than half an hour, ascending to a considerable altitude, and then turned in the direction of Colon.

The clouds had cleared away from the time he reached Gatun, and a 25-mile breeze was blowing over Colon, where he arrived at 11 o'clock. He crossed over to Cristobal, and the motor began to miss fire and then stopped suddenly, owing to the failure of the gasolene supply.

Fowler brought his hydro-aeroplane down gracefully, but it landed on shallow water, over a reef, a hole being torn in the pontoon. The machine otherwise was not damaged.

Dr. Charles A. Lewis spoke of "The Negro and the Negro Masses."

Rev. Dr. Charles A. Tindley discussed "The Negro and His Education."

Rev. Richard D. Stinson, head of the Atlanta school, made the principal address. He said that his institution was founded to teach the negro youth how to do the "every-day" things of life.

He said that 80 per cent of the funds to carry forward the work of the school had been contributed by Atlanta. He asked the audience to aid in raising sufficient funds to erect buildings in which the trades of different kinds may be taught and that may be used as a dormitory for students.

The "salvation of our race lay along lines of doing things with our hands, conservative speech and working six days in the week." He declared that the schools in other sections of the city and the best white people is to encourage those negroes who are honest, active and of service to themselves and others.

"To that end let us hear more about the school, its needs, its aims, its methods, and the bad ones," he said.

Rev. W. Spence Carter, minister, took a contribution. Many leading negroes sat upon the platform and the audience was very large.

Mr. M. Turner, in a letter, commended the school, its principal and the white people of the south.

SUCCESSOR TO BRYCE REACHES NEW YORK

New York, April 27.—Sir Cecil Arthur Spring-Rice, K. C. M. G., the new British ambassador to the United States, arrived in New York on the steamer Carmania.

DRUGGIST IS ARRESTED FOR DEATH OF WIFE

Salina, Ark., April 27.—Dr. J. D. Summers, well-known druggist of this place, is held on a warrant sworn out after partial investigation by a coroner's jury into the death of Mrs. Summers on Sunday. Physicians reported finding a great number of bruises on the woman's body, and evidently she was added to show that she was addicted to alcoholism.

Witnesses testified that, while under the influence of liquor, the man and his wife frequently quarreled, and blows were exchanged. The coroner's investigation will be resumed Monday afternoon.

Oh! Goody! Sugar Cookies!

That is what the children say when they see the crisp, delicious cookies you have made with

Swift's Silver-Leaf Lard

They are good for children, better than crackers or rich cake because they are easily digested. Give them all I want when they are made this way.

For good health and good baking be particular about the shortening you use.

BOYD WILL MEET IN ATLANTA UP TO PAROLE BOARD

May 5—Hawthorne May Go Free in July.

Washington, April 27.—The question of the release of parolee late in July of last year, who had been convicted in New York for mis- use of the mails in connection with the promotion of mining stock, will be determined by the federal parole board to meet at the Atlanta penitentiary May 5.

The prisoners entered the penitentiary March 24, and although the trial judge stipulated that their sentence of one year and a day should date from November 24, when their trial began, the department of justice has decided in an interpretation of the parole law that they must actually serve one-third of the time in prison before they will be eligible for release. If the board finds their cases comply with all the other conditions and restrictions of the parole law, they consequently will be released on May 12.

Robert V. Labow, superintendent of federal prisons and president of the parole board, will be in Washington this week for the Atlanta meeting.

In addition to those of Hawthorne and Morton, who will be present, will consider the cases of the many other prisoners who are eligible to be released on parole, or who will be eligible to leave the federal penitentiary.

The parole board at the Atlanta meeting consists of Superintendent Labow and the warden and physician of each respective prison. From a meeting on May 12 to the Leavenworth penitentiary for prisoners there, and then to McNeil Island, Washington, for a similar meeting on May 27.

FINED OF $2,000 ASKED FOR SOCIAL WORKERS

Effort WIM Be Made to Raise Today the Expenses of the Sociological Congress.

A convention fund of $2,000 before night is the object of the 400 club, which comprises all Atlantians who are sympathetic with the Sociological congress and its fight for the solution of human problems, provided they prove their interest by a contribution to the fund. The Sociological congress is urged to mail his subscription to the Constitution today, so the current expenses of the Sociological Congress can be defrayed by a popular fund, instead of resting on the shoulders of a few social workers of Atlanta.

Next Saturday the 400 club was organized, and the first 100 members, enrolled before night had subscribed over $1,000 towards the $2,000 which it is desired to raise.

"The Atlanta spirit which raised a tremendous guarantee fund for the Shriners convention over night for fostering an entertainment will not fail when it is asked to contribute to the cause of the Sociological congress, and its fight for the solution of human problems, provided they prove their interest by a contribution to the fund."

The Sociological congress was brought here by the social workers of Atlanta, a mere handful of men and women, who, by their efforts, have created in the metropolitan world conditions affecting the home and the street. Nearly all officers of the state and nation have endorsed the ideals of the congress, and the Sociological congress was brought here by the social workers of Atlanta, a mere handful of men and women, who, by their efforts, have created in the metropolitan world conditions affecting the home and the street.

"Money cannot measure what this convention will do for the Sociological congress, and its fight for the solution of human problems, provided they prove their interest by a contribution to the fund."
